SYMPHONY OF EQUALITY

Evansville, IN -- Ivy Tech Community College will host a “Symphony of Equality” in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The event will be a community celebration and traveling art exhibit.

The “Symphony of Equality” will be held on Saturday, January 13, 2007 from 1-4 pm at Ivy Tech Community College, 3501 N. First Ave. The celebration will include performances by the Evansville African American Choral Ensemble, Boom Squad Incorporated-Youth Percussion Group, D4J Youth Dance Group-Memorial Baptist Church and more. Informational display will include art and information from the Evansville African American Museum, Human Relations Commission, Lyles Station Association, and Joshua Academy.

The “Symphony of Equality” will take place in Ivy Tech’s Vectren Auditorium and Student Commons. The event is free and open to the public. For more information on the event call 812/429-1397.

Ivy Tech Community College is the state's second largest public post-secondary institution with over 65,000 students enrolled this fall. Ivy Tech has 23 campuses throughout Indiana and serves as the engine of workforce development in the state, offering degree programs and training that are aligned with the needs of its community. Ivy Tech-Central Indiana is the largest of those 23 campuses with over 14,000 students. Ivy Tech is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.
