Sections 668.41, 668.45, and 668.48 of the Student Assistance General Provision were amended to implement the Student Right-to-Know Act, as amended by the Higher Education Amendments of 1991 and further by the Higher Education Technical Amendments of 1993. The final regulations require an institution that participates in any student financial assistance program under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, to disclose information about graduation or completion rates to current and prospective students.

* Fall census count: full-time, first-time degree/certificate-seeking students. Part-time students and students who transfer into the College are excluded from this analysis. Deceased students are also excluded from the beginning cohort.

 Completer specifications to comply with Student Right-to-Know regulations: students who received a degree/ certificate within 150% of normal program time. Technical Certificates were completed in four terms (1 1/2 years) and Associate Degrees were completed in 9 terms (3 years).

 Transfer specifications: students who transferred to a non Ivy Tech institution (two- or four-year, public, private, or in- or out-of-state) within 150% of normal program time and not already counted as a graduate. Beginning Technical Certificate students transferred within 2 years. Beginning Associate Degree students transferred within 3 years.

* Due to small numbers in some portions of the report, counts of several groups have been combined to ensure appropriate privacy protection. Included in this combined group are all Asian-American, American Indian and students who race or ethnicity is unknown.

Note: Transfer data was compiled by using Ivy Tech's beginning cohort and matching the cohort to the National Student Clearinghouse (NSC) transfer data.
