MATH 080, MATH 123, MATH 122 State lead faculty responsibilities:

1. Serve as statewide contact to answer questions about course content and implementation
2. Provide leadership to regional leads by answering questions and disseminating information regarding any changes to curriculum, materials, assessments
3. Working with regional leads for input, update assessments (multiple versions of each) and load into shell before the date needed for copying each term.
4. Working with regional leads for input, update and instructional materials and projects as needed especially to include current data and fresh ideas.
5. Add to pool of resources for both instructors and students
6. Assist Carrie McCammon in working with Marcus Kolb to determine and implement appropriate plan for measuring student success in these courses.
7. Assist in the coordination of continuing professional development opportunities with regard to these courses