

MEDICAL ASSISTING

NOW AVAILABLE IN HENDRICKS COUNTY

Starting for the Fall 2021 semester, Ivy Tech Community College will offer the Medical Assisting technical certificate in Hendricks County. Classes will be held at the new MADE@Plainfield higher education facility, located at 1610 Reeves Road in Plainfield.

This is limited enrollment program with a separate application. Details below.

PROGRAM BASICS FOR HENDRICKS COUNTY STUDENTS

The Medical Assisting program is a limited enrollment program coming to Ivy Tech in Hendricks County, offering an exciting, hands-on learning environment.

Students will learn from credentialed faculty that have real experience in the field. In addition, students have the opportunity to participate in an externship in the community.

- Program available at Ivy Tech's Plainfield and Lawrence locations
- When applying, select "Indianapolis" as the location and we will follow up with you about availability at the Plainfield
- Medical assisting is one of the eligible programs under Indiana's Workforce Ready Grant - see if you qualify for a free credential at IvyTech.edu/NextLevelJobs

MEDICAL ASSISTING IS A LIMITED ENROLLMENT PROGRAM

APPLICATIONS DUE MAY 15, 2021

Apply for this program now at:
apps.ivytech.edu/apply/NursingAndHealthSciences

Need assistance? Contact the director or visit:
link.ivytech.edu/LimitedEnrollment-Video.

CONTACT Lori Andrews, MEd, RN, CMA (AAMA)
Program Director • landrews@ivytech.edu

IVY TECH
COMMUNITY COLLEGE