1. Admission

Apply online at www.ivytech.edu/admissions/applynow. Choose the “Bloomington-International” application.

2. English Language Proficiency

Demonstrate English Language Proficiency one of the following ways:

- PBT TOEFL 500 or higher
- IBT TOEFL 61 or higher
- IELTS 6 or higher
- MELAB 69 or higher
- SAT 460 or higher/reading and writing
- ACT 17 or higher/English and 18 or higher reading
- College level English class C or higher
- ELS English training program Level 112
- Citizenship from a country whose official language is English
- You can also take the Ivy Tech ACCUPLACER English test. Contact the Office of International Student Services for more information.

3. Financial Support

Submit financial documents that total at least $21,000 U.S. dollars. Documents can be in your country’s currency. Higher amount is required if you have dependents on your F-1 Visa.

4. Personal Information Form

This form is at the bottom of this document.

5. I 20 Forms and transcripts from all

Unofficial transcripts accepted. If you want your college credit to transfer to Ivy Tech, submit official transcripts.

International College Credit: If you want international college credit to transfer to Ivy Tech, submit official transcripts to a NACES approved member for evaluation. For more information, visit www.naces.org. Click on HOW TO FIND A MEMBER. Select a member and follow instructions.

All application materials and required documents should be submitted to:

Office of International Student Services
Ivy Tech Community College
200 Daniels Way
Bloomington, Indiana 47404
bl-international@lists.ivytech.edu
(812) 330 6106 FAX

UPDATED 5/17/16
6. International Documents

Submit copies of the following:
- Passport (Valid for at least one year into the future)
- F1 Student Visa (Can be expired if currently in the U.S.)
- I 94 Form or Stamp

If there are dependents on your F1 Visa, submit copies of the following:
- Passport (Valid for at least one year into the future)
- F2 Student Visa (Can be expired if currently in the U.S.)
- I 94 Form or Stamp

7. Accuplacer

If you have not passed a college level English Composition and Mathematics class, you will take the Ivy Tech Accuplacer assessment before registering for classes. More information on the Accuplacer is available at www.ivytech.edu/assessment. Minimum Accuplacer scores must be achieved to register for classes.

8. Health Insurance and Orientation

All international students and dependents are required to have student health insurance. Students are required to attend International New Student Orientation. Information will be sent to you on a later date.