

Resolution Honoring the Leadership of Richard Tully

Resolution Number 2012-74

WHEREAS, Richard Tully, a leader, colleague and friend became associated with Ivy Tech Community College of Indiana (then Indiana Vocational Technical College) in April, 1985 as Director of Facilities and Institutional Studies, a position that evolved throughout Tully's career until he was designated Associate Vice President for Facilities Planning in March, 2012 and

WHEREAS, Richard Tully developed a metric based system that the State Board of Trustees has used since 1986 to establish the College's Capital Budget Requests and

WHEREAS, Richard Tully guided the College through the development of a space needs model and building and project standards and

WHEREAS, Richard Tully was instrumental in the development of capital budget requests proposals and the subsequent management of $ 545 million of capital projects and 25 capital leases valued at $ 66 million that were approved by the Indiana General Assembly and

WHEREAS, throughout his nearly 28 year career with the College, Richard Tully oversaw the completion of 36 major construction or renovation projects, contributing to a nearly 150% increase in the gross square footage occupied and a 368% increase in the square feet owned by the College, each and collectively enhancing the overall image, stature and beauty of the College and

WHEREAS, Richard Tully was a strategic partner in maximizing the utilization and impact of more than $442 million of bond and bank financed capital projects as well as dozens more financed with College or Foundation funds and

WHEREAS, Richard Tully professionally managed hundreds of College repair and rehabilitation projects throughout his career, and

WHEREAS, Richard Tully brought state and national recognition to the College through his work for the Society for College and University Planning, Indiana Higher Education Telecommunications Systems, Indiana Association for Institutional Research and the American Association of Institutional Research, and

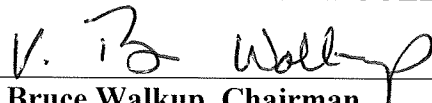

WHEREAS, in addition to his legacy as a professional researcher and planner, Richard Tully has been a loyal and steady friend to all with whom he has associated, and

WHEREAS, Richard Tully has decided to retire from Ivy Tech Community College on January 25, 2013,

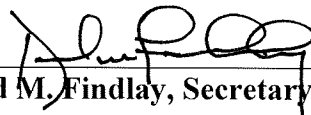

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT, the Board of Trustees of Ivy Tech Community College of Indiana does hereby honor Richard Tully by this resolution as a means of recognizing and thanking him for his dedication, passion, and service to Ivy Tech,

AND FURTHER BE IT RESOLVED THAT, the Board acknowledges that Ivy Tech Community College, State Board of Trustees and all of Dick's former and current colleagues have benefitted personally and professionally because of his guidance, leadership and friendship.
