

The Office of the Academic Advising Center are offering success workshops throughout the academic year to assist students in their field of study and/or within the workforce. These workshops provide students with awareness that can help them become prosperous in their classrooms as well. Come to a free workshop to help you increase and enhance your knowledge regarding your major/field of study. We hope to see you there!

Instructions for Signing up:

You may sign up for one or several workshops listed below by calling the Express Enrollment Center at 765-966-2656 ext. 1202 or schedule an appointment by accessing your Ivy Advising account located in Blackboard. The workshops in Ivy Advising are listed under the name: Clarissa Andrews-Jones, Director of Academic Advising-Richmond/East Central Regions, and click on the date and time to schedule your desired workshop you wish to attend.

Title of Workshop	Date, Time, Location and Presenter	Description: What is it about?
L² = APHY 101 + 102: Learn How To Learn Anatomy & Physiology 101 and 102	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wednesday, September 9th, 2015 • 1pm - 2pm • (location TBA) • Chuck Groves, Academic Advisor - Nursing, Medical Assisting and Health Care majors 	Students with limited experience to the language and science of Anatomy & Physiology can find the coursework over-whelming. The amount of information and presents challenges in this entry-level course for the Nursing, Medical Assisting, and Healthcare programs. Come to the Learn How To Learn Anatomy & Physiology 101 and 102 workshop to discover how to reduce your anxiety and increase your learning potential.
Looking for some HOT STUFF!!!! Hot Jobs for Business, Accounting and Computing/Informatics Students	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tuesday, September 15th, 2015 • 10am - 11am • (location TBA) • Brent Sanders, Academic Advisor - Business 	According to the Hoosier Hot 50 Jobs program guide for 2014 through 2016, 19 of these jobs come from the fields of Business and Computing/Informatics. Learn more about these great jobs, what employers are

	Administration, Accounting and Computing/Informatics majors	looking for in candidates, and how to make the best of your education in these fields as you enter the professional workforce.
Undecided about your Major????	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Thursday, September 24th, 2015 • 3pm - 4pm • (location TBA) • Tamika Bynum, Advisor - Undecided Students, Early Childhood Education, Paralegal Studies, Human Services, Criminal Justice, Education, Library Sciences, General Studies, All Technology (Auto, Construction, Engineering, HVAC, etc.) majors 	Develop a plan to help you discover the right path for college and success and professional endeavors for undecided on majors needing and career goals. Discover ways in which you can assess you strengths and talents to determine which major is key for your educational and career goals.
Learning Styles And Studying = You²: Using YouTube To Help YouLearn	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Thursday, October 8th, 2015 • 11am - 12pm • (location TBA) • Chuck Groves, Academic Advisor - Nursing, Medical Assisting and Health Care majors 	YouTube is more than just wacky videos of squirrels water-skiing and dads getting whacked with whiffle ball bats! It's also a very good supplemental source for learning your coursework. Struggling to understand the concepts of Algebra? Can't quite put Chemistry into context? Need additional help for any class? Come to the Learning Styles And Studying: Using YouTube To Help YouLearn workshop to discover the advantages of video tutoring from YouTube.
Spend the Bottle, Chess, Candy Land, Checkers, Jump Rope, Double Dutch, and	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wednesday, October 14th, 2015 • 2pm - 3pm 	These days' employers have many more candidates than openings, which can make it

Jumping Jacks were games we played... Fast forward today and Learn: Tips and Tricks to Land the Job You Want	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • (location TBA) • Brent Sanders, Academic Advisor - Business Administration, Accounting and Computing/Informatics majors 	hard for qualified candidates to land the job that they want. This workshop will focus on things that you can do while in school to prepare yourself for the pursuit of a great job and make you stand out from the crowd of applicants. Learn tips, tricks and strategies for networking, getting your application noticed, landing an interview, and securing the job that you have worked hard to earn.
E or C Learning which one is better? E-Learning vs. C-Learning: Online Education Programs Maintaining balance while being successful in your distance education programs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tuesday, October 20th, 2015 • 10:30am - 11:30am • (location TBA) • Tamika Bynum, Advisor - Undecided Students, Early Childhood Education, Paralegal Studies, Human Services, Criminal Justice, Education, Library Sciences, General Studies, All Technology (Auto, Construction, Engineering, HVAC, etc.) majors 	The difference in face to face classes versus online classes is more than taking a course in a comfortable environment. It required discipline, communication, and balance. Discover key tips on how you can be successful in mastering online programs while maintaining a healthy, productive lifestyle.
Don't Panic! Stress Management Techniques For Students Competing To Get In A Selective Program	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tuesday, November 3rd, 2015 • 10am - 11am • (location TBA) • Chuck Groves, Academic Advisor - Nursing, Medical Assisting and Health Care majors 	Students competing for the few slots allotted to Selective programs can experience increased levels of stress. From the pre-requisite courses to the TEAS Test to the ratio of applicants versus open slots, the increased pressures can affect students' health and classroom performance. Come to the Don't Panic! Stress Management Techniques For

		Students Competing To Get In A Selective Program workshop to learn ways to lower the stress so you can increase your chances of being accepted into your program.
You know... Your Business is My Business: Business Strategies for Success	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Thursday, November 12th, 2015 • 1pm - 2pm • (location TBA) • Brent Sanders, Academic Advisor - Business Administration, Accounting and Computing/Informatics majors 	This workshop will focus on the things that you as a business person can do to make both you and your company successful. Learn inside secrets and strategies for closing the deal, making good business connections, and keeping your customers coming back for more.
Technology 101: How does this shape the future?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wednesday, November 18th, 2015 • 12pm - 1pm • (location TBA) • Tamika Bynum, Advisor - Undecided Students, Early Childhood Education, Paralegal Studies, Human Services, Criminal Justice, Education, Library Sciences, General Studies, All Technology (Auto, Construction, Engineering, HVAC, etc.) majors 	Are you interested in Technology...what about Engineering, Construction, Automotive, Welding, Automation & Robotics, Industrial, or Agriculture, Manufacturing? Come and discover the various facets and career opportunities for technology based careers. Develop programs and lead teams which can advance current programs and create new systems. Take a field-trip to see what Ivy Tech has to offer. All Technology programs are located in McDaniel Hall