CREATION / REVISION / EFFECTIVE DATES
Created September 1992/Revised September 2002/Effective September 2002

PURPOSE
The College has established eight schools in addition to Academic Skills Advancement for the organization of academic instruction. The schools include Applied Science and Engineering Technology, Business, Education, Fine Arts and Design, Health Sciences, Liberal Arts and Sciences, Nursing, Public and Social Services, and Technology.

ORGANIZATIONAL SCOPE OR AUDIENCE
Faculty and students

DEFINITIONS
Regional Academic Officer: Person responsible to the institution's chancellor with oversight of all educational affairs and activities, including research and academic personnel.

POLICY
Campuses must adhere to the school affiliations of degree programs. Management and organization of the schools at the campus level are regionally determined. Statewide school committees can augment decision making related to curriculum and its delivery. These committees represent each of the schools and are guided by and take direction from the Regional Academic Officers Committee.

Members of the statewide school committees consist of one dean from each region or other appointees representative of a school. Appointments are made by the regional academic officer. Meetings of the statewide school committees are held twice a year.

PROCEDURE
