ORGANIZATIONAL SCOPE OR AUDIENCE
Faculty, staff, and students

DEFINITIONS
Course drop: Removing a course from a student’s record so that no record of the dropped course remains on the transcript.

Part of Term: Reflecting the actual start and end dates of the course, the part of term may run for the entire 16 weeks of the semester or may be a subset of that time, such as an 8-week course.

Section Change: Moving from one section of a course to another section of the same course.

POLICY
Repeating Courses – Students may repeat a course one time. In cases of extenuating circumstances, students may attempt a course for a third time only with the approval of the Regional Academic Officer (RAO) or designee. Withdrawals count as an attempt.

Dropping Courses - Students may drop a course with no record on the transcript until the end of the 100% refund period for the length of term shown in the table below.

All students who are not in a paid or arranged-to-pay (protected) status will be dropped from classes according to an established College-wide deadline. Once dropped, students may not attend classes.

Adding Courses – Students may enroll in a course until midnight before the course’s first session. The first session for online courses occurs the first day of the term. Section changes that occur after the first course meeting are only permissible with approval from the instructor of record and the RAO or designee.
