DISTINGUISHED ALUMNA AWARD RECIPIENT

Gelina Mascoe

Born in La Gonave, Haiti, Gelina Mascoe's story epitomizes the American Dream. She moved to Florida as a seventh grader not speaking a word of English. However, she adapted quickly and made new connections. Shortly after graduating from high school, Gelina relocated to Northern Kentucky to pursue a career in medical technology. She has since earned two degrees, including a Health Care Specialist degree from Ivy Tech in 2014. Gelina founded Lumiere D'education Foundation, a charitable organization that provides free education to 170 children in Port-au-Prince, Haiti. Closer to home, Gelina is the founder of the recently opened Haitian Center of Evansville, connecting local Haitian immigrants to the support they need to achieve independence, increase overall well-being and enhance future community impact. When Gelina isn't busy changing lives, she resides in Evansville, IN, with her husband and their two children and works as a full-time real estate agent for F.C. Tucker Emge.

BENEFACTOR OF THE YEAR AWARD RECIPIENT

Lu Porter

Lu Porter has served Ivy Tech as a Foundation Board member for more than 27 years, connecting countless donors and students into the Ivy Tech family. Lu serves the community in many ways, from her time on 25 local and state boards over the last several decades to supporting community needs and assisting non-profits in their fundraising efforts. She retired from the Evansville African American Museum after seven years in 2017 and previously worked in community outreach for Integra Bank for 18 years. Throughout her life in Evansville, Lu has kept a continuous pulse on supporting youth and the disenfranchised, from helping young people set up their first bank accounts to encouraging the pursuit of higher education. "I always tell people, 'The way to change your life is through education. That's what you've got to do, get your education and things will start to fall in to place.'" She is married to her husband of 49 years, Jake, and has three children and four grandchildren. Lu is the daughter of a preacher, who she credits for teaching her the values of servant leadership, and will tell you at any given time, "God always shows up, and right on time." In addition to the Ivy Tech Foundation Board of Directors, she is also currently on the ECHO Community Healthcare board.

The Foundation's most important function is to provide support for Ivy Tech beyond state appropriations and student fees. This is made possible by donations of money, in-kind gifts and property by friends of the College.

These gifts fund student scholarships and emergency assistance, allow the purchase of technology and equipment for your classrooms and ensure the faculty and staff had the latest training in order to serve you to the best of our ability. Your advocacy in the community, engagement on campus and gifts to the Ivy Tech Foundation will pay it forward for years to come. You are now a member of the Ivy Tech Alumni Association – Connect, Share and Celebrate with us!

Whether you have a career that awaits you or are continuing your education, set new goals and make them happen. Congratulations again on your well-earned achievement.
