

Yom HaShoah

HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE DAY

Tuesday, April 18 at 1 p.m.
Vectren Auditorium

NAZI PROPAGANDA AND THE THERESIENSTADT CAMP: FOOLING THE INTERNATIONAL RED CROSS BY CREATING A JEWISH RESETTLEMENT “SPA TOWN”

Presenter:
Dr. Todd Schroer

About Dr. Schroer:

Dr. Todd J. Schroer is an Associate Professor of Sociology & Criminal Justice, and Chair of the Criminal Justice Department at the University of Southern Indiana. He has researched deviance and social movements since the early 1990s, focusing primarily on the white supremacist movement. His publications and presentations have focused on social movements' usage of music and social media, movement tactics, and contests over “deviant” identities. In the last decade he has focused on current conspiracy theories, the overlap between U.S. and Nazi eugenic views and racial laws, the role of the criminal justice system in the Third Reich, and Holocaust denial and distortion.

Sponsored by:

Study Abroad, Student Life, Welborn Foundation Wellness and Fitness Center,
School of Arts, Sciences, and Education, and the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Belonging

IVY TECH
COMMUNITY COLLEGE
EVANSVILLE

