2025 DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI AWARD RECIPIENT

Erin McEnery

Transitional Healthcare Facilitator, Putnamville Correctional Facility

Erin McEnery's journey is a powerful example of perseverance and dedication. Arriving in Terre Haute from New Jersey, she quickly became an integral part of her new community while pursuing an associate's degree in criminal justice at Ivy Tech Community College. Even as a student, Erin demonstrated an exceptional work ethic, balancing two part-time jobs while developing the strong organizational skills that would serve her throughout her career.

Graduating from Ivy Tech in 2015, Erin continued her academic pursuits at Indiana State University. Simultaneously, she launched her career in criminal justice, accepting a full-time position as a detention officer at the Vigo County Juvenile Detention Center from 2016 to 2018. Her commitment to professional growth was further evident when she joined the Fleschner, Stark, Tanoos, and Newlin law firm in 2018 as a Case Manager for the prehearing department, quickly earning a promotion to assistant department manager.

Erin completed her bachelor's degree in criminal justice in December 2019 while maintaining her full-time role. Driven to further her expertise, she embarked on a master's degree in criminology and criminal justice.

In 2021, she transitioned to the Vigo County Community Corrections Center as a pretrial screening analyst, quickly advancing to the role of quality assurance coordinator and pretrial services supervisor. She achieved her master's degree in May 2023, all while excelling in her demanding professional responsibilities.

Most recently, in December 2024, Erin accepted a position as the transitional healthcare facilitator at the Putnamville Correctional Facility, marking yet another significant step in her career. Within a decade, Erin has earned three degrees and established herself as a highly sought-after professional in the field of criminal justice.

Beyond her professional achievements, Erin remains deeply connected to her academic roots. She generously volunteers her time to mentor current Ivy Tech students, sharing her experiences and providing invaluable guidance. She embodies the spirit of community and exemplifies the ideals of hard work, integrity, and lifelong learning. Erin McEnery's trajectory is a testament to the transformative power of education and dedication, making her a truly distinguished alumna.
