Student Spotlight

Victor Tapia worked as an intern at Siemens Industry, Inc., a technology company focused on industry, infrastructure, transport, and healthcare. The Operations Supervisor at Siemens had this to say about the experience:

"Victor Tapia, Siemens Intern for 2024, Ivy Tech Student, and Navy Veteran is just what we are looking for. At Siemens, we've partnered with local colleges to find, invest in, and hire local talent. Thanks to Ivy Tech, we've found exactly what we are looking for with Victor! Victor is a team player. He has the capacity to understand what we are doing and make an impact with our customers. He is safety minded and is driven to succeed. Thank you Victor and thank you Ivy Tech!"

By partnering with local businesses, internships offer a win-win for students and employers. Students gain valuable job experience while employers can help make sure the next generation of workers are equipped with the skills they need for their industry.
