

DG Elmore is Chairman of Elmore Companies, a family holding company in Bloomington, Indiana. It buys profitable, founder-led businesses and holds them for the long term. Over more than four decades he has started, run, and acquired companies in travel management, education publishing, technology, manufacturing, professional sports, and staffing.

Elmore Companies has built a diversified portfolio that includes Gant Travel (1984), Cornerstone Information Systems (1992), Solution Tree (1998), Bellwether Forest Products (2016), Grayhill, Turner Mining Group, Mednick Associates, Adams & Westlake, Legacy Fire Protection, Firmatek, and Butterfield Foods, among others.

DG earned a B.B.A. from Southern Methodist University and a joint J.D./M.B.A. from Indiana University's Maurer School of Law and Kelley School of Business.

DG served on the U.S. board of The Navigators for more than 25 years, including a term as chair, and he sits on the board of the Lausanne Movement.

He also serves on the boards of directors for numerous business and non-profit organizations.